* Competence in a language other than English through the intermediate level (e.g. SPAN/FREN 2002) is required in Core IMPACTS or Field of Study. SPAN 1001/FREN 1001 cannot be used anywhere in degree, but students may opt to take the course in preparation for SPAN/FREN

1002 if the student did not complete 2 or more years of Spanish or French in high school.

All English majors must have a C or higher in all English classes and classes applied as electives.

Education students are bound by the rules and policies stated in the Teacher Education Unit Policy Manual and in the Intern Handbook.

Both are posted on the Teacher Education home page at <http://www.clayton.edu/teachered>.
