

ACCOUNTING, MINOR

The minor in Accounting is designed to serve both business and non-business majors. The minor in Accounting will provide non-accounting majors with a comprehensive foundation in financial and managerial cost accounting critical for understanding a company's internal and external financial reports, knowledge and skills in individual income taxation, and ability to perform and complete various tax forms and tasks.

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Required Accounting Courses		15
ACCT 2101	Principles of Financial Accounting	3
ACCT 2102	Principles Managerial Accounting	3
ACCT 3110	Managerial Cost Accounting	3
ACCT 3250	Taxation of the Individual	3
ACCT 3361	Intermediate Financial Acct. I	3
Accounting Elective Courses		3
Choose one course from the following list:
ACCT 4110	Advanced Managerial Cost Accounting
ACCT 4250	Taxation of Business Entities
ACCT 4330	Accounting Information Systems
ACCT 3362	Interm. Financial Acct. II
ACCT 4440	Governmental and Non-Profit Accounting
ACCT 4850	Accounting Internship/Cooperative Education
	or ACCT 485 Accounting Internship/Cooperative
	or ACCT 485 Accounting Internship/Cooperative
	or ACCT 485 Accounting Internship/Cooperative
ACCT 4210	Volunteer Income Tax Preparation Program
ACCT 4470	Forensic Accounting
Total Credit Hours		18