CMS 4810. Women and the Arts (3 Credits)
In this course, we will explore the role of women as artists, spectators, and representations in the visual, literary, and performing arts. Our primary category of analysis in Women & the Arts is gender, the socially constructed and historically variable understanding of what it means to be a woman or man, but we will further consider how this category interacts with race, class, and sexuality in the arts. Likewise, a central idea in our class is that knowledge and images conveyed through artistic texts are not neutral; rather, the arts socialize and discipline us even as they entertain and enlighten us.
Prerequisites: ENGL 1102 and CMS 2100 or ART 2302 or PHIL 2401 or THEA 1100 or WST 2500
